Wedding Music Contract

Payment and Cancellation Policies (continued)

If Mark Haven is unable to perform due to extenuating circumstances such as illness or accident, he will offer to book another musician(s) as his replacement. When performing as an ensemble, Mark Haven reserves the right to substitute an accompanying member of any group when circumstances require. Mark Haven guarantees that the quality of any replacements will comply in accordance with industry standards.

If Mark Haven will be playing outdoors, the client will need to provide protection from the elements including wind and precipitation. If Mark Haven and colleagues feel the conditions for performance are detrimental to the safety of instruments and/or personnel, he reserves the right to refuse to play until such conditions are remedied. In this event, the agreed-upon starting and finishing times and the balance of payment remain in effect.

For every hour of continuous playing, Mark Haven and his colleagues, if applicable, will take a 10-minute break.

Specific non standard musical selections will be arranged at a cost of $60 per arrangement.
